

Unhinged, Nirvana

kiss my bleeding lips and i'll cross my heart, promise i'll be yours kick the tv in, i'll be watching you, you're too nice to ignore ring the bells again, amnesia's setting in, shades of white on the wall, poison arrow tip clean through my heart now i see it all join me in nirvana paradise is ours on the other side of the fence it's perfect so far fading out again, wanna take a trip, at the end of the rainbow intentions, so intense, magic looking glass, self-entertaining show frozen water mark, deep insecticide, coming back to you
icing on the cake, medicine on my brain, that thing never grew climb up the ladder, see your perfect friend when we reach nirvana, we'll start over again
