

United Nations, Filmed In Front Of A Live Studio Audience

[Director To The Crew:]

"Sympathies:

Down then they're up again.

We won't see you this time next year

Unless the sponsors come through

And the money starts pouring in."

[Leading Man:]

"I could swear someone's been watching me.

I hear something outside.

It moves in my dreams.

At the edges of sleep."

[A Word From Our Sponsors:]

"Are you sad?

Do you sleep in your room at night?

Do you need pills for your moods?

Or someone to hold you?

Because we know how it feels

When the sounds of their laughter

And the tv's cold glow

Follows you home

To the room where you sleep all alone."
