

Universal Hall Pass, Tutelary Genius

Son of a bitch

Don't sabotage everything that moves forward

I think "if I fail, I would be free of success and its burdens"

But failure's burdens are heavier with misery's many friends

Once I get up I will do all I can, not to fall on my face again

CHORUS

Can you find me a true original?

Sentinel satellite, keeper of vigilance,

Uncompromising and unconditional

Tutelary genius

Sound the alarm!

Agency's calling me out from my slumber

I admit that I'm scared

To bully regret out of burning my daylight

Deep in my moment of weakness I tried to reach out to you

Next time you need me for something just know I've more pressing things to pursue!

CHORUS

Can you find me a true original?

Sentinel satellite, keeper of vigilance

Uncompromising and unconditional

Tutelary genius

Tutelary genius

BRIDGE

Whilst hunting minotaur inside my magic maze

This idle halo spins around my head in petty pace

I fear I've caught myself between the screen and the window pane

Take joy from the now and the things that longing tried to take away

(Background vocals in bridge: Inside my magic maze/Please don't give up just trust that efforts are

I feel so ashamed

Only a mind with enough time to wander

It's anchors away, once I'm through building the ship I'm to sail in

Unbind myself from the hamstrings of yesterday's hit and run

No I won't stand to be pinning myself

There's more pressing things to be done

CHORUS

Can you find me a true original?

Sentinel satellite, keeper of vigilance

Uncompromising and unconditional

Tutelary genius
