hope... open up your eyes filled with my kind fear then you know your not me fade...away... that's what i want to scream you're not like me hope... lace up my own eyes feel this broken fear then i know i'm not you i'm done trying everything i can't match your sense of greed my life rots, dragged by a sewer train been shut out life, bleeding your gain fade...away... that's what i want to scream that's what i want falling down in my old shell nothing left for me but hell took your shit and now i fkin smell clueless eyes, drain, fade...
