

Unjust, Searching Eyes

it pulls me to you
draws me near to the open doors that hold the limits we can share! for the minute share! for the minute f**king just a little but its better to have been by your side, one time by your side!

in my eyes
you will find
what lies in my searching eyes look into these eyes lose yourself with mine then we remember

the lost time when we were dreams... in a vision.
