

Unjust, Trench

rising inside of me i've torn my way to see rage grows rage knows i've seen the reasons i believe when no directions lead me i live on my born instinct confined my only days with strength and faith engaged trench! inside me! trench! to save me!

dead weights tied tight to me enclose my sanity trench grows, that's holding me collides with what i see taking no destination
i hunt for my obsession myself my only friend i live it till the end cannot hold the ways life weighs pressing this new age of rage live for the grinding shattered days hate wars are fking me insane!

confide...
my only days...
confide...
...my only days...
