

Unknown, Tears

I'm gonna pack my bags
Take it with me everything
That I'll make sure I got it
All with me so that I won't have to come back anymore
See it's clear to me
Where you wanna be
And who you wanna be with
Don't act like you don't know
Cause I know what you've done
But I, I'm not even gonna cry
No I, I'm ready to say goodbye
No one can do better, and i bet you'll never, find a girl like me
You're not worth my tears
You're not worth my tears
Thought you had it all
But now you know
That I was everything you wanted
All those years you threw away in a second
What a fool
See it's clear to me
Where you wanna be
And who you wanna be with
Don't act like you don't know
Cause I know what you've done
Now you're on your knees
Telling me to come back
That you ache in tears(?)
Do you really think I believe that
I ain't stupid no
You cant play me for a fool
Don't act like you don't know
Cause I know what you've done
I, I'm not even gonna cry
No I, I'm ready to say goodbye
No one can do better, and i bet you'll never, find a girl like me
You're not worth my tears
You're not worth my tears
Can you handle it
When your baby is gone
You're all alone (yeah)
I can handle it
Just like that, i quit
On your love, on your promises, i quit
(ooh)
Is it too much
I let you take it in
But I, I'm not even gonna cry
But I, I'm not even gonna cry
No one can do better, boy i bet you'll never, find a girl like me
