

Unleashed Power, Absorbed

They can't see who you really are
The potential to go really far

Will you conform, absorbed by the norm

What do you see when you look at your life inner joy or bitter strife

Will you conform, absorbed by the norm

Do you know you are different
Real unique or just equivalent

Absorbed, by fear
Absorbed, by trends

What do you think when you follow the herd do you dream to be free as a bird

Will you conform, absorbed by the norm

Absorbed, by fear
Absorbed, by trends

Every man sees things differently
Courage to resist another trend
There's an alternative way to be
Not to give them the money you spend

Free from the shackles of mediocrity pursue your individuality

What are you trying to accomplish
Do you bow to their decree
Be free to roam as you please
Heed your heart and be free!

Do you heed the corporate hype do you get pegged as a stereotype
Will you conform, absorbed by the norm
