

unloco, Watching Me Slip (Album: Becoming I)

so I sit here alone trying to find my own way to cope with everything that I've done wrong so I try real hard not to see what you've done to me but I couldn't find my heart and there won't be any silence till its gone there won't be any silence till i'm

look away your watching me as I slip away
cause everything I know just falls apart now its me as I slip away

so I try real hard not to see what you've done to me but I couldn't find a way than i'll see my own way to cope with everything that i've done wrong

and there won't be any silence till its gone

cause everything I know just falls a-it just, it just falls apart and its cause i'm not enough to bring down i'm not enough to bring you down i'm not enough to make you happy i'm not enough to make you stay
