

Unlord, Where Fires Burn hear the dark call, burn with me erased in darkness, blasphemy a choice so clear, like skies so high a life eternal, the eternal night we build the stake, the sacrifice and gather forever to end this life and the flames are reaching high as the hordes from hell arrive the sacrifice is made to resurrect the master burn die headless corpse! ghost ride on the cross taste blood, demon's wine unholy soul to be mine praise the night when fires burn in the haunt of no return the call of darkness whips the sand as we build our new land our new land where fires burn
