

Unreasonably Doubted, Never Say Goodbye

one more trip for the rest of our lives, im leaving now but never say goodbye its so hard leaving everything you have in the dust

its all over, not the rest of our lives i told you that i'd never say goodbye we'll all meet someday in the in end never be forgotten

i woke up one day finding myself and im thinking about about something else again, so many changes im begining to forget but when i sing this song i will remember this

i told you that i'd never say goodbye
never be a forgotten friend never forget

forgotten friend
