

Unreasonably Doubted, Time Is Wasting

Runnin around, tryin to find my place should have went our seperate ways i have felt like i've been betrayed and thats not ok

On the road to a new life lookin for a new place to go bu i always find the same old thing not listnin to me

so why does it feel like friends are fading away well time is wasting and its all gone by cause time is wasting away again were i go were i stay im always lost in the same old place nothing seems right to me am i free because i wish i could be

what i do for myself is not the same why the hell is the time flying by now why does it feel like my friends are fading away

X2

cause time is wasting away yet again
