

Unshine, The Last Moment

Like flying, like shuffling years have pasted
how did they go where did they go?

Every step he has watched he's always been here
today he's real
the creature of dream

Night is blue
the time is closing
forever contest
is going to end
fear is gone
night is smiling
leading to dream of the unknown world

At the darkest moment
today he gets me
kind of I'm fine
this is the moment of mine

Air is blue
the gate is open
in a while I am there in a while all is clear
