

UnSuNg ZeRoS, Friends Come And Go

If I died some time soon would you come to my funeral?
Would anyone be there?
If I needed some backup, would I be deserted?
Does anyone care?

'cause' in these times
When I'm alone,
all I have to do is summon my memory,
of what I've got
and who they are
and then I wont feel lonely

Do I show up alone or someone comes with me It's really not that bad
But still I feel a tingling of whose gonna hurt me
I shouldn't be scared

'cause' in these times
when I'm alone,
all I have to do is summon my memories,
of what I've got
and who they are
and then I wont feel lonely
