

UnSuNg ZeRoS, Leave Me

spending time in not so obvious places where no one would search for me a little dose of ambivalence in attitude as to the trends of the places i should be please don't leave me don't tell me there's not time for me cause i used to be your best friend taking a trip down a road i've been before these crazies want to change their personalities for things that i deplore the rationale of your average trendsetter's pretty hip but the rationale of those who follow for the crowd's just shit
