

UnSuNg ZeRoS, The Movie Song

you must think this is a movie shouting, lights, camera action make up artist, fixes bruises ill do better this next take (1st verse)

listen up ive had enough of all your crazy games i give you everything i have and then you act like its ok you took my beating heart out of me and leave nothing in return i give you proof and definition to you, loves just another word.

(bridge)

You cant relie, afford what you want cant you see that im slipping away

(chorus)

bring in the cut, sub in, im tired please dont be suprised at all this is my real life that your tearing my real life that your tearing it apart

(2nd verse)

every scene we shoot it moves us towards the script and then it ends its pulling tight around my neck and choking what we have and im not breathing, life into this cinimatic words gone wrong this is the last chance to fix the way its been all along i gave may it work out acctually how everything you said means naturally

(chorus)

when the cuts swap in, im dieing
my real life and your tearing it apart

(bridge)

if i could i'd fly away from here a thousand miles and maybe from the outside to the baltic sea and maybe have you get on before im done

(chorus (awws in background))

please dont be suprised
