

UnSuNg ZeRoS, You'll Never Know Who She Is

I haven't quite recovered from being your friend it takes so much out of me cause I want you more but then I realize we're not meant to be not even in the least but I've fallen for you anyway I'm wishing you could see

Your face, Your eyes please tell me you love me tonight because right now that would mean more than anything

your lips
form words that make my heart beat so fast that i'm sure
in two short words
you are my everything

mabey one day down the road you'll know you were my crush but knowing that would seperate us and mess our friendship up so now I'll sit here in the shadows while others come and go feeling all these things for you and wishing you could know (Chorus)
