

Until I Wake, hope ur happy

What a mess you've made.
What the hell were you thinking?
How will you explain leaving me in the distance?
There's nothing you can say.
No way that you can fix this.

Don't look back when you walk away.
You made your choice when you abandoned me.
Yeah your life is such a tragedy.
You don't know a thing about loyalty.

What a sick game you play while my mind is afflicted.
And every word you say is just another contradiction.
I won't beg you to stay if your mind is conflicted.
You're so stuck in your ways.
I hope you find what you're missing.

Don't look back when you walk away.
You made your choice when you abandoned me.
Yeah your life is such a tragedy.
You don't know a thing about loyalty.

Just leave and stay away from me.
I've made my peace.
Two faced.
You'll never take the blame but we both know the same.

Don't look back when you walk away.
You made your choice when you abandoned me.
Yeah your life is such a tragedy.
You don't know a thing about loyalty.
Don't look back.
What a mess you've made.
What the hell were you thinking?
(You abandoned me)
There's nothing you can say.
No way that you can fix this.
