

Until June, This City

sleep quiet, lock the doors and stay the night.
bomb shells and broken hearts fall far from sight lights flashing far above me as i lay i never thought my life would end this way.
so take me away from here,
the time is here
a life all spent with you is closing in it's all i can see
when i'm lost, oh
put out the fire and pretend to dream.
this city's sleepless but it's far from me.
so take me away from here,
sorry lord i've lived my life away from you soon i'll wake up standing there with you
it's all i can see
when i'm lost, oh
