

Until The End, Life On A Lie

Out your faith in nothing
And get nothing in return
Defend your sins to the weak
And gets nothing in return
I've wasted my whole life on a lie

I waste my whole fking life on a lie

I've given myself, the final decision
I've charged myself
With a hate filled life
Theres no use in fighting
For a whole world of sin
This false revolution has
Killed my dreams
Killed my hope
Forced my hand
Killed my dreams

If we start living for ourselves
And stop giving in to our guilt
Maybe we will have one last chance
To start over and get it right

We need something
To believe in
Not in image
Not a dream
