

Unwritten Law, Holiday

Sometimes life can knock you down
Just gotta pick your ass up off the ground
Probably don't matter anyway
'Cause in the end it's gonna be ok
Because life's a holiday
Don't wanna go and work harder
Just to keep my head above water
Can't hear what teacher's trying to say
'Cause it makes no sense now anyway
And tomorrow's another day
And I just wanna play
'Cause I know that we'll be ok
'Cause Life's a holiday
I'm sorry
For my, my blasphamy
It's just my way
And I'll stay
Because life's a holiday
