

Upstanding Youth, 3 Page Letter

Everyones convinced to blame it on the kids,
What a disappointment theyve turned out wrong.
They are themselves, they harm themselves.
You wont find them,
they dont seek your smile in unity and chaos.
A smoke filled room.
A life support system youll never know.
And all he knows is that hell never fail,
like his two brothers that are locked in jail.
The three-page letter that he read today reminds him hell never let go.
These vacant cities these vacant stares littered with pilgrims
