

Upstanding Youth, Conflict Resolution

Others, they may live for glory,
but I just want, to myself to be true.

Others, they may live for glory,
but I just want, to myself to be true.

Anxiety now grips my mind and I wonder what to do.

I compare myself to the person that I see in you.

I will not fail. I will not fall.

Others, they may live for glory,
but I just want, to myself to be true.

Others, they may live for glory,
but I just want, to myself to be true.

Doubt - leave me now. Im only so strong. Only so much can I do,

Before I crack and think its time that that I gave into you.

I will not fail. I will not fall.

Others, they may live for glory,
but I just want, to myself to be true.

Others, they may live for glory,
but I just want, to myself to be true.
