

Upstate Escape, Rashley's Song

I still remember when we met
And all the ways we felt
When you were just a mystery
And I was something else

Everything was new to you
And though I tried my best
To handle you so carefully
I left my fingerprints

And now you're gone
So what am I supposed to do?
I'd say that every other second you're away
I wanna be with you

And baby it's ok
I'll wait
And when you're far away
I will pray
You take
A step from where I left you
Cuz someday
We'll make a beautiful array
Of how we've changed
I'd say that the people we become
Will somehow be just as in love

You swept me off my feet, babes
And I landed on my head
And now I sing these crazy things
In songs I always said I wouldn't write
But this is right
And I won't let it slide away
I'll live off pics and movie clips
If that is what it takes
Cuz now you're gone
And I'm still just a fool for you
I'd say that every other second you're away
I wanna be with you

And there's no lullabies
From you tonight
But before I rise
I dream of you
