Urban Dub, Give

I wait by the phone I wait for the call that never comes I play in your game But the truth is it's driving me insane.

The moment I give Is the moment you take You're less than forgiven The moment I wake Is the moment you sleep You're always receiving.

I'm taking my time In time you'll get yours and I'll get mine And you'll be surprised On how things can get back at you sometimes,

'cause I've played the fool Now I'm breaking all your stupid rules 'cause I've had enough of you I'm leaving it all, I'm leaving you...

The moment I give Is the moment you take You're less than forgiven The moment I wake Is the moment you sleep You're always receiving.

I wait for the call that never comes Am I wasting my time 'cause time takes its crazy toll
