Uriah Heep, Love Stealer (Single A Side)

She's got an eye on you There's nowhere to hide She keeps her motives still Deep down inside She shows no mercy, no She plays it rough She don't want your money She just wants to love Love stealer, raw dealer Heart breaker, love taker Yeah yeah... She walks in the shadows As she waits for the night She gets what she's looking for She knows how to fight If you see her coming Then you'd better know If your love's for the taking She'll steal the show She just can't go round there first Facing the joint Then she'll move in And get right to the point So keep your love locked away Don't let it show Or the love stealer will rock you For more than you'll know
