

Uriah Omen, The Red Button

When, when you feel upset,
I will kiss you softly and leave your cheeks wet.

Lie;
tell me you're alright.
Put the sun behind you,
for everything we've been through.
I'll still be standing,
running through the grass as you'll see.
Death will have no stay,
running through the head.
Everyone will tell you,
I'll still be standing (standing).

Pray that when you feel upset,
I will kiss you softly and leave your cheeks wet.
Darling, you can run
in the middle of the night.
Never mind the whisper;
it'll be alright.

Lie;
tell me you're alright.
Keep the sun behind you,
for everything we've been through.
I'll still be standing,
lying through the grass as you'll see.
Death will have no stay,
running through your head.
Another daybreak,
I'll still be standing (standing).

It shouldn't hurt long. (x4)
So basically I'm set (basically I'm set). (x4)
So basically I'm set (so basically I'm set). (x4)

Death will have no stay.
