

Urma, Buy Me With A Coffee

Instead of wasted gifts around
Instead of losing all we have
Instead of dreaming to a man you'll never have
You'll better breath with me and feel...

Instead of planning and debating
Instead of shaping my own dreams
Instead of dreaming to a son you'll never have
You'll better breath with me and feel...

You can buy me with a coffee
I'm so cheap...

Instead of letting distance talk
Instead of losing all we have
Instead of dreaming to a man I'll never be
You'd rather breath with me and feel...

Instead of judging day and night
Instead of wasted time on both sides
Instead of guessing what the hell went wrong with me
You'd rather breath with me and feel...

You can buy me with a coffee
I'm so cheap...
