

Useless ID, Birthday Song

"It was a sunday
i never thought i could forget if i would remember i wouldnt be full of regret

Now she needs an answer i forgot her birthday

Sitting and waiting i want her to know that i care no matter what i say i'll make it up to her

After all we can be friends still pretend all the time because it was her birthday
