

Useless ID, The Worst Holiday I've Ever Had

The happiest day of the year has come around again.
Maybe tonight I'm bound to find my long awaited friend.
She's waiting there. The falling star where wishes don't come true.
It's too bad that I got no plan and wonder what I can possibly do.

It's down once again.
Will anyone care to end the worst holiday I've ever had in years.

You thought about another chance that didn't make it through,
because of what the bad scene has made out of you.
Can't stand to see another smile the next time she's around.
I'll lend her all my feelings for a day. How does it sound?
So cruel.

It's down once again.
Will anyone care to end the worst holiday I've ever had.

It's so clear, it's the worst holiday I've ever had.

It's the worst holiday I've ever had.
It's the worst holiday I've ever had.
It's the worst holiday I've ever had.
It's the worst holiday I've ever had.

(Ohhhh) When you want to break out...
(Ohhhh) When you want to break out...
Break Out!

Do you remember when? No one was wondering.
Why I was sad on this holiday?
