

Usher, Rivals (ft. Future)

She got me throwin' Spades Ace with that mouth
I guess only time could tell
You gotta give me dirty love
I guess I'm end that
When I keep on anyway a lie
Look up and see the stars in a perfect line
Any love is a love affair (...?)

So tell me how you feel (how you feel)
Knowin' I see the world when I look in your eyes
Your kisses are Duracell, they keep me energized
Tired of goin' back and forth, baby I'm hypnotized
You gotta a nigga in love on the low though
I'm lookin' at you and I swear it's been a long road
A great ass, a better mind, what a combo
You know you pretty and you winnin' with the combo
She kinda tipsy, we been drinkin', she's a light weight
She love the way I'm puttin' panties in the right way
But anyway let's get back to how I've been feelin'
I just love the times when I'm beside you
Holdin' me down cause you're my rider
I look in your eyes and I get higher
There's nothin' in this world I hold tighter
Without you I feel uneven

Make everyday a love season
Baby girl you know you're my pride
That should be enough reason
Call you baby that's only your title
Cause I don't need no more rivals
I put that on the Bible
You're the only thing that I want
Give me that feelin'
Make everyday a love season
Dirty lover you are my pride
That should be enough reason
I call you baby that's only your title
Cause I don't need no more rivals
I put that on the Bible
I'ma love you till my time's gone
You gotta give me dirty love

I've been here trust me, I've seen it all before though
I told my ex for me relationships a no-no
And here I am thinkin' we perfect like a photo
You lookin' at me like right now you need some mo'-mo'
I know you ready and you willin' but that ain't my place
Sign all, settle down, on your face
Feelin' startin' to get too familiar
So cover up this broken love treason

Make everyday a love season
Baby girl you know you're my pride
That should be enough reason
Call you baby that's only your title
Cause I don't need no more rivals
I put that on the Bible
You're the only thing that I want
Give me that feelin'
Make everyday a love season
Dirty lover you are my pride
That should be enough reason
I call you baby that's only your title
Cause I don't need no more rivals

I put that on the Bible
I'ma love you till my time's gone
You gotta give me dirty love

I see you side by side
Like a visionary I can't see me fallin'
Nothing's strange
Like a dictionary I can't read through all these (Eyes wide open)
I still fall blind I don't know how this rollin'
Let's go back to the beginnin'
Let's cover up this broken love treason

Make everyday a love season
Baby girl you know you're my pride
That should be enough reason
Call you baby that's only your title
Cause I don't need no more rivals
I put that on the Bible
You're the only thing that I want
Give me that feelin'
