

Utada Hikaru, Let Me Give You My Love

What a day!
Young boy, next door, passed away.
Oh, it makes me wanna say,
"hey I don't wanna waste another day,
Can you and I start mixing gene pools?
Eastern, western people, get naughty.
Multilingual.

And we're sorta like soul searching
But your body's so jaw dropping.
Our chemistry's groundbreaking.
Don't keep me waiting.

*Hurry up baby. Hurry up baby.
Let me give you my love
Hurry up
Let's turn this room into a melting pot.
Giddy up baby. Giddy up baby
Let me give you my love
Buckle up boy, I know you're gonna like what I got.

Maybe it's not worth the wait.
Maybe I should walk away
Hey, I should not waste my energy.
Can you and I stop acting like fools?
Or move onto other people?

Its funny
But I like the sad songs.

And we're sorta like soul searching
But your body's so jaw dropping.
Some say its rule breaking
But times are changing.

*repeat

let me know if what I'm feeling isn't mutual all I know is that I'm feeling very very hot hot hot

*repeat (2x)
