

V-Corps, Afraid Of Being

Since Our Beginning
We just dont know
What is good and what is bad
What decide and where to go
Then we ask each other:
Why is it so hard?
When were on right way
We think what a crap
We cant ignore!
That were often stupid
When we dont know what to do
We want to show!
That were reliable
But we know we cant listen
Stop to be afraid of Showing all your dreams
And giving everything you have Finish to denied all you can hear
Start to appreciate that youre
Someone special
We cant ignore!...
Because of our selfish life
Hurts everyone
who wants to help us
to make our move
Youre responsible
For ever For you have tamed
Since Our Beginning
We just dont know
What is good and what is bad
What decide and where to go
Then we ask each other:
Why is it so hard?
When were on right way
We think what a crap
