

V-Corps, That Day

Sadness all around
Everythings darker than its real
No sunrise on sky line
That doom you can feel
Sun wont come today
The scars are bleeding
The past will never go away
This is one of worthless days
And I dont think
I could survive till the night
That day I need to be alone
That day wont leave any good memories
That day will show me that Im just a man
Im sitting naked on a throne of shy
Theres no light to pray
You have to beat it
By yourself with no one near
Think bout weapon that you have
Because only joys
Can beat your fuckin sorrows
THE SCARS ARE BLEEDEING!!!
This time the pills wont kill the pain
This time I need fresh air to breath
This time I need to feel the blood sailing my vains
This is not time to death
Sun wont come today
The scars are bleeding
The past will never go away
And I dont think
I could survive till the night
This time the pills wont kill the pain
This time I need fresh air to breath
This time I need to feel the blood sailing my vains
