V, FRI(END)S

(Friends) Ooh

You're in my head I had plans for the weekend (Ah) But wound up with you instead (Ah) Back here again (Oh) Got me deep in my feelings When I should be in your bed (Oh)

You and I go back to like '09, it's like forever And you were there my lonely nights, yeah Keeping me together So wouldn't it make sense if I was yours? And you could call me your baby But we say we're just, say we're just

Friends, just for now Yeah, but friends don't say words that Make friends feel like more than just Friends, just for now (Just for now) Now, I'm over pretending So let's put the "end" in friends

Friends are not supposed to get too close And feel emotions that We're feeling now, now, now We ain't slowing down, down, down (Yeah, yeah, yeah) But once we cross the line There's no denying you and I can never turn around, 'round, 'round Know we'll never be the same (Ooh)
