

Val Emmich, The Boy Who Cried Wolf

Listen up... Real close this time it isn't a joke this is a real emergency believe me now

my luck has run out I have very little to laugh about oh please for the sake of humanity hear me out

'Cause I am the boy who cried wolf but you've gotta believe me now
I know I don't deserve your trust but you know I need it now

The past... I could erase I've made some incredible mistakes.
this is my sincerest apology forgive me now

'Cause I am the boy who cried wolf
but you've gotta believe me now
I know I don't deserve your trust
but you know I need it now

'Cause I am the boy who cried wolf
but you've gotta believe me now
I know I've been a spoiled brat but you know I'm different now

I admit I was so wrong
I admit I was so wrong
I admit it was so wrong
so wrong
