

Valentine, Feel So Bad

In my dreams there are some things that I can't describe
I have to speak about or I would keep this lie.

When it gets me down oh then I get turned around.
You stabbed me in the back. Is this something you enjoy, something you enjoy?

Refrain:

Tell me why do I feel so bad?
I want to hurt you deep in your heart.
I feel so bad.
I thought we were in real love.
I feel so bad.
I'm speaking from the inside.
But now I want to fight against it, and so you can't make me be hurt.

Once as I was naive and silly, I thought you told the truth.
Now I know more about you. I will not believe in you, believe in you.

:Refrain:

When you look at me, will I ever be free?

:Refrain:
