

Valentine, Ocean Of Full Tears

Yeah, yeah, yeah (3x)

Weathers riding high the sun goes down
A storm comes up like a crystal from the sky
I wonder how youre coming over me
My heart is sad and dry

Would you heal my deepest secret fears?
I see the ocean full of tears...

Im on the run - Sitting in my lonely room
Im on the run - Waiting for the day to come
Im on the run - Watching out for someone who loves me
(2x)

Yeah, yeah, yeah (2x)

Winters coldness falls apart
Needles sticking in my heart
My life becomes a fairy tale
Im riding under mighty sail

A star is shining in the dark
I see the ocean full of tears

Im on the run...

A drum is beating in the night
A spirit climbs the wall
Spiderman will hold me tight
Im earning for your call
Behind the house of pain there is no fun
I guess I guess Im on the run

Yeah, yeah (3x)
