

Valentine, Your Shit

Last night I thought I should leave you cause you never kissed me for some days and I gave you love that you've not recieved we love each other in different ways

but you take another way... and youve thrown my love, my love away (yeah, yeah,yeah)

Why should I care?
Do what you wanna do, cause Ive never loved you Tell what you want
Oh I (yes I) Ive never listened to your, to your shit.

you thought you could deceive me (yeah yeah)
But I was strong and thats the reason, reason to get on a higher level than you have
and so you couldnt understand (yeah)

but you take....

Refrain:
Ive never thought that we could be divorced
because I always loved you In every situation you smiled at me and the world was okay

Refrain
