Shadow Of The King (Part I)

(M/L: Mikel)

Battle has called me I am waiting
With no fear left in my heart
Dead flesh's smell is what I'm feeling
In a rough fight tonight in the dark

By power of gods I am fighting
To drive evilmen back to hell
Like dragon of hate they are roaring
With fire they scream fight and yell

Riding the days
And sailing the nights
All I have seen
Is my victory
But now is the time
To look through the past
When all bravemen die
And black is the sky

I will fight my war forever
I will fight my war 'cause I am the one I'm the king

My enemies (are) here just to haunt me
Too much blood spilled once again
A demonized arrow behind me
That shows me the way to the end

All I see now
Is the red of my blood
So far from home
And I'm so alone
My heart bleeds for free
And I'm on my knees
Waiting for death
I take my last breath

I'll be gone not lost forever
My son will come to fight 'cause he is the one he'll be king
