

Valhalla, The Awakening

The Awakening

(M/L: Jevo)

Long time ago into the deep caves
Under the Mountains Of Hope
The Gods of Thunder
Gathered to create a perfect being
Hammerers and forgers
Worked together day after day
Night after night
Only they knew the secrets of steel
Finally a mighty creature was born
Made of forged iron, fire and steel
He was the Master of all the elements
He had the gift of immortality
Thousands of descendants
Spread all over the Universe
All his sons were made of flesh and bones
The flame still burns
Within their Hearts of Metal
They will never die
The Gates of Valhalla await.
