

Valkenrag, Victory or Valhalla

And the thirsty snow
Drinks from my veins
Legs buckle below me
Strength leaves my arms
As my vision blurs
As my hands go numb
A promise strikes a spark
A prize for warrior's life
A maiden dressed in gold
An endless hall of stone

Victory or Valhalla
Victory or Death
Victory or Valhalla
Scream with your last breath
The Allfather watches
Let him see my deeds
Seeds of death I am sowing
I will cut down the weeds

And the thirsty snow
Drinks blood of my foes
Bodies licked by flame
My sword leads the way
And my vision blurs
And my hands go numb
A promise will be fulfilled
A prize for warrior's life
A maiden dressed in gold
An endless hall of stone

Victory or Valhalla
Victory or Death
Victory or Valhalla
Scream with your last breath
The Allfather watches
Let him see my deeds
Seeds of death I am sowing
I will cut down the weeds
