

Vampiria, Legacy In Blood

Strangest thoughts round in my head, like ancient views in red,
a call coming through centuries,
like a legacy in my blood.
there's something growing into me, cannot control it much more time, i feel it round into my veins and begins to awake.
The anxiety controls me... and your neck, so white, there's not too much to lose, come on, let me taste your blood.
Aeternum vitae,
hereditare in sanguinis, maledical dominus (but).
I can feel the ancestral thirst, now my eyes see through the dark, we're gonna live in the eternal night.
We're gonna walk together, for all eternity wandering in the shadows, spreading the fear.
Night will be ours.
To hunt and drink,
to hunt and drink forever,
the essence of life.
