

Van Halen, Feel Your Love Tonight

All right!

We're gettin' funny in the back of my car
I'm sorry honey if I took it just a little too far, yes
Ah too, too far
So I, I told the fellas out behind the bar
Told them to tell you honey just how fine you are, yes
Uh yes, you are

You see I'm beggin' you please
(Beggin' you baby, beggin' on my bended knees) On my knees

Sayin' "I can't wait to feel your love tonight." Wooh!

See you drivin' up and down my road
I tell you honey you're the prettiest girl I know, yes
Uh, that's for sure
But uh, better use it up before it gets old, no
I tell you honey now you've let your life grow cold, no
Uh no, no, no

I'm a-beggin' a-you
(Beggin' you baby, beggin' on my bended knees) I'm on my knees

I can't wait to feel your love tonight
(I can't wait to feel your love tonight)
I can't wait to feel your love tonight
(I can't wait, I can't wait) Woo!

Well, I been workin' since a ten of nine
I tell you sugar by midnight I'll be fine. Flyin' high
Woo! We'll hit the town, we'll have a hell of a time
I'll tell you honey by morning you'll be mine, yes. All mine

You know I'm beggin' you baby
(Beggin' you baby, beggin' on my bended knees) I'm on my knees

I can't wait to feel your love tonight
(I can't wait to feel your love tonight)
I can't wait, to feel your lovin' tonight, ah yeah!
(I can't wait, I can't wait)

(Guitar Solo)

I can't wait to feel your love tonight
(I can't wait to feel your love tonight)
I can't wait to feel your lovin' tonight
(I can't wait to feel your love tonight)
I can't wait to feel your lovin' tonight. Aw yeah!
(I can't wait to feel your love tonight)
I can't wait to feel your love, love, love, love tonight. Ah whaa!
(I cant wait, I can't wait)
I can't wait to feel your love tonight
