Van Morrison, Goin' Home

Goin' home, he's goin' home He'll be leavin', leavin' here today Well if he don't leave now Won't be goin' nowhere

Well home is where the heart is Then my home's in New Orleans Take me to that land of dreams Lord, and if I don't leave now I won't be goin' nowhere, nowhere

Goin' home He's goin' home (yeah, yeah, yeah) Yeah he leaving, leaving here today Well if he don't go now I won't be goin' nowhere

(Instrumental-piano)

" Welcome to Dr. John"

(Instrumental- horn)

"Go to Chris Barber on Trombone, Chris Barber"

What you say
And what you do
Well it's times like that, then I'm tellin' you
Well if you don't leave now
I won't be goin' nowhere (nowhere, nowhere, said nowhere) Lord
And if I don't leave now, I won't be goin' nowhere
Yeah but don't leave now
I won't be goin' nowhere
(woo, yeah) yeah...
