

Van Morrison, The Eternal Kansas City

Chorus (Choir singing)

Excuse me do you know the way to Kansas City?

Excuse me do you know the way to Kansas City?

Excuse me do you know the way to Kansas City?

Excuse me do you know the way to Kansas City? (Do you know the way to Kansas City?)

Excuse me do you know the way to Kansas City? (Do you know the way to Kansas City?)

Excuse me do you know the way to Kansas City? (Do you know the way to Kansas City?)

Excuse me do you know the way to Kansas City? (Do you know the way to Kansas City?)

Excuse me do you know the way to Kansas City? (Do you know the way to Kansas City?)

(Van singing)

Excuse me do you know the way to Kansas City?

Excuse me do you know the way to Kansas City?

Excuse me do you know the way to Kansas City?

Excuse me do you know the way to Kansas City?

Train down to St. Louis

Get me there alright

Over to the city there, you know that one

Where the farmer's daughter digs the farmer's son

Dig your Charlie Parker

Basie and Young

Witherspoon and Jay McShann

They will come

Oooowooooowoooo

Chorus (Van and choir in background)

Excuse me do you know the way to Kansas City?

Excuse me do you know the way to Kansas City?

Excuse me do you know the way to Kansas City?

Excuse me do you know the way to Kansas City?

Lady Liberty in waiting

You know she lights the way

Her name is Billie, she's a Holiday

And the city is eternal -- hey, can't you see?

It's inside of you and it's inside of me

Oooowooooowoooo

Chorus (Van and choir in background)

You know, you know the way to Kansas City?

You know, you know the way to Kansas City?

You know, you know the way to Kansas City?

You know, you know the way to Kansas City ?

You know...the way to Kansas City

You know...the way to Kansas City

Wild Thing

You know the way to Kansas City (Choir only)

Thank you Man (Van)

You know the way to Kansas City

Sing it (Van)

You know the way to Kansas City (Van and choir)

Hit it (Van)

You know...the way to Kansas City

You know...the way to Kansas City

You know...the way to Kansas City

You know...the way to Kansas City

Baby can't you sing it one time (Van)

(Choir)

You know the way to Kansas City

You know the way to Kansas City

You know the way to Kansas City

You know the way to Kansas City

You know the way to Kansas City
You know the way to Kansas City
You know the way to Kansas City
You know the way to Kansas City
