Van Morrison, Think Twice Before You Go

(A. Smith)

Think twice before you go Baby, this'll be the end Think twice before you go Baby, this'll be the end Can you leave me one time Baby, you will leave again

Stay and suffer with me, baby Then I'll know you paid your due Stay and suffer with me, baby Then I'll know you paid your due If you're not there when I need you Then you know you stand accused

Think twice before you go Baby, this'll be the end Think twice before you go Baby, this'll be the end If ya leave me one time Baby, you will leave again

Ooh!

You're breakin' my heart When ya know ya done me wrong You're breakin' my heart You know you done me wrong Baby, come back home Come back where you belong

(One more time)

Think twice before you go Baby, this'll be the end Think twice before you go Baby, this'll be the end If ya leave me one time Baby, you will leave again
