

Vance Joy, Lay It On Me

Anyone can see that I'm wasted
You can through
And I just wanna know what's in your head

Write it on a piece of paper, honey
Put it in my coat before I go
Hidden in a place you know I'll find out Later when I'm sitting all alone

Let me in
Everything starts at your skin
So new
Your love's always finding me out
Who am I kidding?
If all my defenses come down
Will you lay it all on me now?
lay it all on me now? /3x

snow comes down everything is new and different
I found you hiding in plain sight
Why'd I take so long?

Let me in
Everything starts at your skin
So new
Your love's always finding me out
Who am I kidding?
If all my defenses come down
Will you lay it all on me now?
lay it all on me now? /3x
