

Vandalism, Never Say Never

If time itself was his demeanor
There'd be no sunset or a glimmer of sunset landing on the street
Sunsilk girls must be discrete
Sunsilk girls must be discrete
Sunsilk girls must be discrete
Nursing their fathers locked inside
They masquerade it
As his bride
I might like you better if we slept together
I might like you better if we slept together
I might like you better if we slept together
But there's something in your eyes that says maybe that's never
Never say never
Never
Never say never
Never, never, never
Sunsilk girls must be discrete
Sunsilk girls must be discrete
Nursing their fathers locked inside
They masquerade it
As his bride
Never say never
I might like you better if we slept together
I might like you better if we slept together
I might like you better if we slept together
But there's something in your eyes that says maybe that's never
Never say never
Never
Never say never
Never
Never say never
Never
