

Vandavanda, Love Of My Life

Hey, hey, hey!
All you lovers, raise your hand
Hey, hey, hey!
All you lovers, make a stand

Every day, you come to me
You run away, so you can be
The hero of my dreams
Take me away
For all eternity

Each night I pray, my troubles deep
Will hear you say, respectfully:
'Tonight, when you're asleep
Don't be afraid
I'll keep you company!'

You are the love of my life, you are
You are the sun and the light, you are
You are the love of my life, you are
You are the day and the night, you are

Hey, hey, hey!
All you lovers, raise your hand
Hey, hey, hey!
All you lovers, make a stand

Everyone, around the world
Every boy, and every girl
If love is in your heart
Raise up your hand
We're gonna make a start

Young and old, rich or poor
We'll walk right through that open door
If love is what you feel
Raise up your hand
We're gonna make it real
